MANY WITNESSES WERE CALLED

Special to News Review.

LISBON, May 20.—The $10,000 damage suit which was recently instituted to recover from the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street Railway company for injuries received on the 8th of July last, was called in court yesterday afternoon, and was given to the jury at 4 o'clock today.

The charge of carelessness on the part of the company, which was claimed by the prosecution as the cause of the accident, was substantiated chiefly in the evidence submitted, tending to show that the motorman, James Hamilton, who had only been in the employ of the company eight days when the accident occurred, was inexperienced.

A. H. Clark was first called for the prosecution, and testified to having been in the vicinity when the accident occurred. He first saw the car when it was coming down the hill at a rapid rate of speed, and stated that it left the track at the Horn switch and shot straight into the ravine.

Moody Coburn was a passenger on the car and gave testimony as follows: "The car was going at a moderate rate of speed when first starting down the hill. Hamilton was in charge alone, and when the car got beyond his control he did all in his power to stop it, but both brakes seemed to fail to work. I think there were 19 or 20 passengers on board, but remember nothing after the car went over."

Andrew Watson and Ella McDole were passengers one the car, and gave testimony similar to Coburn, especially as to the motorman's efforts to manipulate the brakes, which were of no avail.

Samuel Meanor and Frank Anderson were on the car and the former testified as follows: "When I saw the car was beyond control, I watched the motorman and saw him use each brake in turn. He stuck to his post to the last. I think the car left the track at the Horn switch."

The plaintiff's testimony on her own behalf was of the severe injuries she had received, which were chiefly internal, and which promise to be permanent, which was corroborated by Doctors Kirk and Williams, who were her attending physicians.

The prosecution here rested their case, and Superintendent Andrews took the stand, testifying as follows: "James Hamilton began working on the road the first of July, and was under the instructions of Motorman C. A. Allison for seven days before he was placed in charge of a car. On the morning of the 8th, the day of the accident, I went over the line with Hamilton myself, with the express purpose of judging his competency. The new motorman managed his car fully as well as I could have done myself. One half hour after the accident I arrived at the scene and at once examined the track and brakes and found both to be in an excellent condition. I had known Hamilton for two years and a half. No car could run off the track unless at a rate of 60 miles an hour. No, he had never done any work of this description before. On examining the track I found it crushed stone."

Motorman C. A. Allison was next called and said: "Hamilton had been under my instructions, and I found him an exceptionally apt pupil in the work, as he managed the car from the first himself. I was on his car the morning of the accident, but left before reaching the Franklin street hill, at the foot of which the accident occurred." Allison also testified as to the freight that was on the front end of the car, and stated that its presence did not interfere with the working of the brakes.

Motorman Mike Fisher, Will Coleman, John Stodhill and Fred Marsh gave testimony as to the good condition of the brakes before and after the accident. Coleman testified as to a discovery by him of a piece of hard stone, after the accident, lying near the outer rail of the line, which had been crushed by a car. He stated this would, in his estimation, cause the car to leave the track.

The condition of the brakes was corroborated by Jack Tinson, inspector of the line, and J. D. Hickey, track foreman.

The testimony was all in when court adjourned at noon, and Judge Smith opened the argument, which Judge Johnson has limited to four hours.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Carl Muench and Minnie Croxall Married Yesterday.

The wedding of Carl Muench and Minnie M. Croxall, which was announced to take place today at 4 o'clock, was consummated yesterday at the above hour at the home of the bride's parents on Washington street. The only invited guest was Mr. Len Hertle, a companion of Mr. Muench while employed in the city, and the ceremony was only witnessed by the parents and sisters of the bride, and Mr. Hertle, who acted as best man. The bride was dressed in white silk, with pearl trimming, and the couple presented a pretty picture as they stepped before Rev. J. M. Huston, of the First M. E. church, who in a few sentences pronounced the words which made the contracting parties man and wife. After receiving the congratulations of many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Muench left on the evening train for Terre Haute, Ind., their future home.

A TROLLEY WHEEL.

The Latest Discovery Made to Bring Good Luck.

The latest that has been discovered to take the place of a horse shoe in bringing good luck, is a trolley wheel. The committee now securing funds for the new library have the credit of this discovery. This morning the committee started out to solicit funds and had good success in a couple of places, but then went to about ten others and found no one in. They then started up the track and one of the members picked up a trolley wheel and said "he guessed he would take it with him to see if it would break the 'hoodoo'." The first place they went after this they found the proprietor in and he donated generously. The committee now say they will carry that trolley wheel with them until their work is finished, and have it nicely wrapped up in paper, in order that it can be easily carried.

A DEATH.

Mr. Pomeroy Passes Away at the Home of His Father.

C. W. Pomeroy, of Third street, died at the home of his father, Rev. J. S. Pomeroy, of Fairview, W. Va., yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, after a lingering illness, caused by a complication of diseases. Deceased was well known in this city, having been in business on Fourth street, and was respected by all who knew him. He was nearly forty-three years of age and leaves a wife and four children. The remains will be brought to the city this afternoon and taken to the residence of his sister, Mrs. George H. Owen, of Third street. Interment will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the River-view cemetery.

POSTPONED.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Will Hold No Reception Friday Night.

Owing to the commencement exercises being held on Friday night, the entertainment that was to have been given by the Ladies' auxiliary to the employees of Vodrey's, Brunt's, and the East Liverpool potteries on that evening, has been postponed. This will cause the entertainment to go over for two weeks, as on a week from Friday evening the auxiliary will hold their annual reception to the members of the Grand Army. The entertainments will be taken up again on Friday evening, June 5th, and will continue until all the potteries in the city have been included in the list entertained by them.

DESTROYING TREES.

A Practice That Can be Punished by a Heavy Fine.

Someone tied a horse to one of the beautiful shade trees in front of A. J. Boyce's residence on Forest street, and the animal peeled a quantity of bark, that may cause the tree to wither and die.

This is but one of the many incidents of the destruction of trees and shrubbery by horses who are in charge of careless drivers. A number of complaints have come into this office recently from residents on Fifth and Seventh streets, and they think the ordinance should be enforced.

SOME SPORTING NOTES

An Effort to Get the Famous Crockery Cities Together.

ORIGINAL LINEUP OF THE TEAM

The Y. M. C. A. and a Picked Nine Will Play Thursday—The Crackjacks Go to East Palestine Saturday—The First Road Race of the Season.

An effort will shortly be made to get the famous old Crockery City team of 1878 together again, as an interest has awakened in the city to see how the ball playing of 18 years ago would compare with that of today. The Crockery Cities of that year and for some years after were known as the strongest amateur team in this section, and defeated all comers with great regularity. The team at that time was made up as follows: John Howarth, catcher; Thomas Pickal, pitcher; Lon Kinsey, short; Ed. Smith, first; Chal Stewart, second; James Logan, third; Curt Welch, left; Jack Rowe, middle; Robert Ashbaugh, right. The above named persons, with the exception of Messrs. Howarth and Ashbaugh, reside in the city, but it is thought they could be secured on short notice, as Howarth is now in business at Beaver Falls, and Robert Ashbaugh is a resident of East Palestine. If the members of the team will consent to play, a game will be secured with the strong East Liverpool club, and the cranks of the city will have a chance to see a game to talk about.

The Young Men's Christian association team and a picked nine will play ball at West End park tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The lineup of the teams are as follows:

CHAMPIONS. Position. Y. M. C. A. Pope.....Catcher.....Millwood Wallace.....Pitcher.....Allison Colclough.....Shortstop.....Lamborn McNutt.....First base.....Fleiste McClure.....Second base.....Powell Sutton.....Third base.....Orr Cochran.....Left field.....Blake Herbert.....Center field.....Steele West.....Right field.....Shenkle

The Spiders of Wellsville have re-organized under the high-sounding name of Crescents, and now want to meet any team in the Ohio valley.

The Crackjacks will go to East Palestine Saturday to play ball with the team of that place. They have also a game booked at Georgetown for next week.

Win Mercer receives more scented missives from the skirted sex than a grand opera tenor. They are forwarded to the future Mrs. Mercer at East Liverpool, "and she doesn't do a thing with them—only uses 'em to crimp her hair with," says Win.—Chronicle.

"Mercer has made the best showing of the league pitchers."—Press.

"Talk as you may, it is the scientific bunt hit that keeps the third batsman guessing, and if a team of natural hitters like Seibach, Cartwright, Abbe, Mercer, Joyce and the other senators perfect themselves in bunting, many a run will cross the plate, and many an opposition infielder will be kept guessing."—Press.

Dick Padden is ripping the leather, besides playing a bang-up game at second for Al Buckenberger's Toronto team.—Press.

The Eclipse club's new uniforms are expected Friday. The management of the team has as yet booked no games, but has numerous offers from surrounding cities.

The first road race of the season will be given on Friday evening, May 29. The race is for the championship of East End, and will be from Smith's Ferry to that part of the city. Already nine entries have been received and more will follow, but the entries are confined to East End bicyclists, riders from the city proper not being allowed to enter. The contestants will be started at the same time the evening train leaves Smith's Ferry, in order to give the starter and timer a chance to see the finish of the race. A number of prizes have been offered and a hot race can be expected.

VISITED THE CITY.

Lisbon Sons of Veterans Royally Entertained Last Night.

Seven members of the Lisbon camp, Sons of Veterans, arrived in the city last evening for the purpose of visiting the local camp. As General Garfield camp never does anything by halves, they were prepared for the visitors, and proceeded to show them a good time. The first thing on the program was the initiation of two candidates into full membership in the order, the Lisbon delegation expressing themselves in warm terms of praise of the degree work of the camp. After the initiations were completed the visitors were banqueted, and all sat down to a table laden with eatables, Chaplain O. C. Vodrey presiding. Addresses were made by Captain Gorsuch and A. W. H. Martin, of Lisbon, Ed Crosser, Captain W. A. Davis and others, and the entertainment came to a close at an early hour this morning, everyone present expressing a regret that the evening might have been longer, as no one seemed to like to break up the most enjoyable occasion in the history of the camp.

AUNT HANNAH.

The Quilting Party Well Attended Last Night.

There was a large attendance at the Grand last night to witness Aunt Hannah's Quilting Party, and by the hearty applause and continuous laughter, the affair was voted a success by all present.

The entertainment opened with the reception of the visitors by Aunt Hannah, who portrayed that character in excellent style. The quilting frame was surrounded by the party, who applied the needle, while Widow Simpkins entertained the circle with the domestic doings in the neighborhood, assuring and reassuring them that she never made it a point to talk about her neighbors. Priscilla Hastings, an antediluvian maiden, was the butt of many an insinuation concerning her ill luck in matrimonial matters, but resented the jests by turning up her nose and proceeding with her work. Becky Todd, a deaf lady, amused the audience by misunderstanding everything that was said, and interrupting the conversation with ludicrous words that had no bearing on the subject.

The next scene was the preparation of supper by Aunt Hannah and her daughter Keturah, and the guests were invited to the festal board. Many were the amusing scenes at the table, and the audience kept up a continuous roar of laughter. The table was then cleared and the remainder of the evening's entertainment given to games and social chat. A number of choruses and quartets were given, including a selection in German dialect, which took the house by storm. Henry Doolittle was the star of the evening.

All the parts were well assigned and the auxiliary netted a neat sum as a result of their efforts.

A GOOD SERMON.

Liverpool Would Not be Benefited by Wellsville Local Option.

Reverend Little delivered an interesting sermon in his church at Wellsville Sunday in which he touched upon the question of local option in that village. After submitting figures as to the number of arrests for drunkenness made during the period when Wellsville was dry, and showing the comparison of the present state, with a number of licensed saloons, he said: "It is a mistake to say business will remove to East Liverpool. We have 13 saloons. Under the new law each must pay $350 license. Together with rents, employees and other expenses, it will take at least $25,000 to go over their counters to pay expenses of keeping open. But reliable men say that at least $48,000 go over these counters in a year."

"Now I ask any sensible man, is it possible that $48,000 will go to East Liverpool. If so, East Liverpool could afford to close our saloons. If it did not go to East Liverpool, as it could not, would it not, a great part of it, go to the business men of Wellsville, and hence homes better provided and happier wives and children?"

"But we must look at our moral responsibility more than at profit. The man whose soul is not larger than a dollar is a dangerous man, an enemy to good citizenship."

LARGER THAN A DOLLAR

Was the Piece of Frontal Bone Removed From Will S. Smith.

Doctors Allen, Hobbs and Toot, at the operation performed on Will S. Smith yesterday afternoon, removed a portion of the frontal bone larger than a silver dollar, leaving the brain bare. The physicians found a piece of the felt cap which Mr. Smith wore at the time the accident occurred, resting on the brain. The part of the bone that had been struck was in small pieces. Mr. Smith rested very well last night and his condition today seems favorable, his pulse and temperature being normal. He has remained perfectly rational at all times since the accident.

A REAL ESTATE DEAL

Knowles' After the Turner Property on Walnut Street.

INTEND TO ENLARGE THE PLANT

The Matter Being Considered, and an Exchange May Be Made For Washington Street Property—Plans For a New Hall Being Discussed.

An important transfer of real estate is being considered by the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company and the local society of Turners, the consummation of which is one of the possibilities of the near future.

A few days ago it was learned that Isaac Knowles, of the great potting firm, had approached the directors of the Turners' hall and endeavored to enter into a deal with them for the exchange of their property on Walnut street for that owned by the firm on Washington street, consisting of the brick structure, which is occupied by the Ohio Valley Gas company, and the frame buildings adjacent. A monetary consideration, estimated at $5,000, is asked by the pottery company, who claim that the difference in value of the properties will aggregate that figure.

The Knowles company have had an eye on this property for some time, with a desire to annex it to their already vast plant, which will give them almost the entire frontage on Walnut street, between Forest street and Bradshaw avenue.

One reason assigned for making the deal is that the firm anticipates a reaction in the pottery industry, when the reins of government are held in the hands of staunch advocates of protection, and the great demand for their product would necessitate an extension of their plant.

The proposition has been favorably received by the Turners, and the matter is being taken under advisement. The members think the new location would be a desirable one, and a magnificent structure could be erected. Messrs. Berg, Shenkle and Friemack have been appointed a committee to confer with the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company and report to the society.

Should the deal be consummated, the Turners will raze the frame buildings to the ground, and erect in their stead a three story brick structure, adding another story on the building occupied by the gas company. The upper portion of the building will be used by the society, while the lower floor will be occupied by business men.

The Turners are alive to the great expense to be involved in the proposed deal and will proceed only after the matter is carefully considered.

To the Water Works Trustees.

"EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I rise to remark that the public at large is sadly in need of the water which ought to be flowing from the Diamond well. Imagining that I am in a public meeting, I exercise the right of the voter, citizen and taxpayer, and act as follows: 'I move you, Mr. President, that the water works trustees be empowered to grant us, as citizens, the necessary motive power to bring forth good drinking water from the diamond well. I have, as my seconds, a large majority of the residents of the city.' The motion carried unanimously. Will the water works trustees please make note and 'turn on the power?'"

The Eclipse club's new uniforms are expected Friday. The management of the team has as yet booked no games, but has numerous offers from surrounding cities.

The first road race of the season will be given on Friday evening, May 29. The race is for the championship of East End, and will be from Smith's Ferry to that part of the city. Already nine entries have been received and more will follow, but the entries are confined to East End bicyclists, riders from the city proper not being allowed to enter. The contestants will be started at the same time the evening train leaves Smith's Ferry, in order to give the starter and timer a chance to see the finish of the race. A number of prizes have been offered and a hot race can be expected.

VISITED THE CITY.

Lisbon Sons of Veterans Royally Entertained Last Night.

Seven members of the Lisbon camp, Sons of Veterans, arrived in the city last evening for the purpose of visiting the local camp. As General Garfield camp never does anything by halves, they were prepared for the visitors, and proceeded to show them a good time. The first thing on the program was the initiation of two candidates into full membership in the order, the Lisbon delegation expressing themselves in warm terms of praise of the degree work of the camp. After the initiations were completed the visitors were banqueted, and all sat down to a table laden with eatables, Chaplain O. C. Vodrey presiding. Addresses were made by Captain Gorsuch and A. W. H. Martin, of Lisbon, Ed Crosser, Captain W. A. Davis and others, and the entertainment came to a close at an early hour this morning, everyone present expressing a regret that the evening might have been longer, as no one seemed to like to break up the most enjoyable occasion in the history of the camp.

AUNT HANNAH.

The Quilting Party Well Attended Last Night.

There was a large attendance at the Grand last night to witness Aunt Hannah's Quilting Party, and by the hearty applause and continuous laughter, the affair was voted a success by all present.

The entertainment opened with the reception of the visitors by Aunt Hannah, who portrayed that character in excellent style. The quilting frame was surrounded by the party, who applied the needle, while Widow Simpkins entertained the circle with the domestic doings in the neighborhood, assuring and reassuring them that she never made it a point to talk about her neighbors. Priscilla Hastings, an antideluvian maiden, was the butt of many an insinuation concerning her ill luck in matrimonial matters, but resented the jests by turning up her nose and proceeding with her work. Becky Todd, a deaf lady, amused the audience by misunderstanding everything that was said, and interrupting the conversation with ludicrous words that had no bearing on the subject.

The next scene was the preparation of supper by Aunt Hannah and her daughter Keturah, and the guests were invited to the festal board. Many were the amusing scenes at the table, and the audience kept up a continuous roar of laughter. The table was then cleared and the remainder of the evening's entertainment given to games and social chat. A number of choruses and quartets were given, including a selection in German dialect, which took the house by storm. Henry Doolittle was the star of the evening.

All the parts were well assigned and the auxiliary netted a neat sum as a result of their efforts.

A GOOD SERMON.

Liverpool Would Not Be Benefited by Wellsville Local Option.

Reverend Little delivered an interesting sermon in his church at Wellsville Sunday in which he touched upon the question of local option in that village. After submitting figures as to the number of arrests for drunkenness made during the period when Wellsville was dry, and showing the comparison of the present state, with a number of licensed saloons, he said: "It is a mistake to say business will remove to East Liverpool. We have 13 saloons. Under the new law each must pay $350 license. Together with rents, employees and other expenses, it will take at least $25,000 to go over their counters to pay expenses of keeping open. But reliable men say that at least $48,000 go over these counters in a year."

"Now I ask any sensible man, is it possible that $48,000 will go to East Liverpool. If so, East Liverpool could afford to close our saloons. If it did not go to East Liverpool, as it could not, would it not, a great part of it, go to the business men of Wellsville, and hence homes better provided and happier wives and children?"

LARGER THAN A DOLLAR

Was the Piece of Frontal Bone Removed From Will S. Smith.

Doctors Allen, Hobbs and Toot, at the operation performed on Will S. Smith yesterday afternoon, removed a portion of the frontal bone larger than a silver dollar, leaving the brain bare. The physicians found a piece of the felt cap which Mr. Smith wore at the time the accident occurred, resting on the brain. The part of the bone that had been struck was in small pieces. Mr. Smith rested very well last night and his condition today seems favorable, his pulse and temperature being normal. He has remained perfectly rational at all times since the accident.

A REAL ESTATE DEAL

INTEND TO ENLARGE THE PLANT

The Matter Being Considered, and an Exchange May Be Made For Washington Street Property—Plans For a New Hall Being Discussed.

An important transfer of real estate is being considered by the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company and the local society of Turners, the consummation of which is one of the possibilities of the near future.

A few days ago it was learned that Isaac Knowles, of the great potting firm, had approached the directors of the Turners' hall and endeavored to enter into a deal with them for the exchange of their property on Walnut street for that owned by the firm on Washington street, consisting of the brick structure, which is occupied by the Ohio Valley Gas company, and the frame buildings adjacent. A monetary consideration, estimated at $5,000, is asked by the pottery company, who claim that the difference in value of the properties will aggregate that figure.

The Knowles company have had an eye on this property for some time, with a desire to annex it to their already vast plant, which will give them almost the entire frontage on Walnut street, between Forest street and Bradshaw avenue.

One reason assigned for making the deal is that the firm anticipates a reaction in the pottery industry, when the reins of government are held in the hands of staunch advocates of protection, and the great demand for their product would necessitate an extension of their plant.

The proposition has been favorably received by the Turners, and the matter is being taken under advisement. The members think the new location would be a desirable one, and a magnificent structure could be erected. Messrs. Berg, Shenkle and Friemack have been appointed a committee to confer with the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company and report to the society.

Should the deal be consummated, the Turners will raze the frame buildings to the ground, and erect in their stead a three story brick structure, adding another story on the building occupied by the gas company. The upper portion of the building will be used by the society, while the lower floor will be occupied by business men. The Turners are alive to the great expense to be involved in the proposed deal and will proceed only after the matter is carefully considered.

To the Water Works Trustees.

"EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I rise to remark that the public at large is sadly in need of the water which ought to be flowing from the Diamond well. Imagining that I am in a public meeting, I exercise the right of the voter, citizen and taxpayer, and act as follows: 'I move you, Mr. President, that the water works trustees be empowered to grant us, as citizens, the necessary motive power to bring forth good drinking water from the diamond well. I have, as my seconds, a large majority of the residents of the city.' The motion carried unanimously. Will the water works trustees please make note and 'turn on the power?'"

THE BISHOPS.

McCabe and Cranston, old soldiers of the late war, have been chosen as bishops for the Methodist Episcopal church. They are strong men and will do honor to the great body they represent.

HASTINGS.

What means the talk of Governor Hastings, of Pennsylvania, for second place on the presidential ticket with our own McKinley? Has the astute M. S. Quay, keen politician and reader of coming events, read between the lines and found that the masses demand the nomination of the great protectionist? And has M. S. come to the conclusion that Pennsylvania will be satisfied with second place on the ticket?

DIAMOND WELL.

Walking through the Diamond this morning, we found a group of citizens busily engaged in discussing the Diamond well question, and they were a unit in declaring that the water works trustees should furnish the motive power necessary to secure water from the well, in order that the public might be benefited. We suggest to said citizens the appointment of a committee, for the purpose of consulting the said trustees, and out of this consultation might come more than mere talk. If the well is a good feature, take steps to "turn on the water."

LICENSE.

An astute and intelligent leader of the liquor traffic, at present a resident of East Liverpool, has declared that he desires to retire from the business altogether, and embark in a business more congenial to him. He further states that it is but a question of a short time until license to sell intoxicants is done away with in the city of East Liverpool. Another prominent dealer, not far distant from the first named, has openly declared that the liquor business is the meanest and most undesirable business on earth, despite the fact that it is a money making venture. Is the handwriting on the wall? Turn on the light.

CHURCH AND STATE.

Keep them separate. Let no sectarian rule control in this blessed land. There must not be and shall not be any division of the public school fund. No ecclesiastical power shall control in Uncle Samuel's wide domain. No pope, prelate, potentate, bishop, synod, general conference, elder or minister shall dictate as to the way or manner in which the free citizens of this great commonwealth shall worship God. We shall worship the great Giver of all good gifts simply at the dictates of our own conscience. Our forefathers, wise in their day and generation, thus declared, and they handed down to us, their children, this gift from God as a precious heritage; and we, their sons and daughters, fully aware of the incalculable value to it that no ecclesiastical power shall rob us of that which is far more to be desired than gold, silver, or precious stones. The power to thus act and control this great nation comes to us first from God, and secondly through the instrumentality of intelligence and education, and the Little Red School House is the seed which produces, through God, this great harvest of freedom of thought and speech, and the right to serve God according to the dictates of our enlightened consciences. Keep church and state separate. Take warning by the sad fate of nations which have been controlled by ecclesiastical power. No such power shall rule in this land, call it what you may, Methodist, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Catholic, Baptist, Episcopalian or what not. God is the supreme ruler of the universe, and we will worship Him—not any earthly power or human potentate or dictator. Turn on the light.

TRAINING GRIPMEN.

BREAKING IN COUNTRYMEN FOR CITY RAILWAY SERVICE.

Young Farmers Make the Best Gripmen on Account of Their Strength and Caution—A Situation That Requires Close Attention and Plenty of Nerve.

"Where do the gripmen come from?" a strong armed, blue uniformed employee of the Washington and Georgetown railway was asked last night as he left his car at the end of the route for a cup of coffee and a sandwich in the all night restaurant.

"Why, from the country, most of them. These fellows who are raised on cigarettes and beer in the city don't seem to have the muscle necessary to throw on the brake and stop the train on a down grade. Then again a countryman is mighty careful about going through the streets. He's afraid that every man he sees stop off the pavement is going to be run over, and he is absolutely certain that every team that comes out from a cross street is going to collide with him. It takes him about two years to get over this fear, and then, as he becomes a little careless, he has a few accidents that smash up fenders and take the paint off the coaches, and then he gets fired, and the road is ready to break in another countryman."

"How do they break them in?" "Well, they are mighty careful with them. A new man on the grip is about the worst scared object in the world. Talk about your condemned man being scared when he's walking out to be hanged—why, his sensations ain't in it with the man who's running a grip car for the first time. To be sure, an experienced gripman is on the car right beside him, ready to throw on the brakes and sound the 'lookout' bell. But between the grip, and the wheel brake, and the track brake, and the 'go ahead' and 'stop' signals, and the 'look out' bells, and the people jumping on and off the grip car, your new gripman just gets seasick. They say they don't mind it, but they're talking through their bonnets, that's all. Then, another thing, the way they throw on the brake yanks their arms out of joint and makes 'em good and sore, I tell you."

"There's something funny about braking up a grip car. I came from the country to my job, but I wasn't always a plowboy. When I was a young fellow, I used to work in a country printing office, and used to have to run a Washington hand press—you're in the newspaper business? What! Never run one? Well, then, I can't tell you anything about it, except that if you don't know the trick you can't throw 'er over and get an impression no more than a rabbit. You may have a muscle like a blacksmith, but if you don't know the knack you can't pull the lever over, but if you are to do the trick, and don't weigh more'n 90 pounds, you can throw her around just like lightning and make 600 impressions an hour—that is, if you've got a good 'devil' to do your inking."

"Well, as I was saying, that's just like braking up a grip car. Some big fellows weighing 200 pounds, with muscles on them like Fitzsimmons, go out on one of these grips with two coaches behind 'em, and the way they brake 'er up makes all the passengers think they have gone to sea. Then a little fellow, who don't look heavy enough to handle a team of mules attached to a sulky plow, gets a job on the road, and he grabs that old grip like a drum major throwing a baton, and he'll get the knack of the thing right quick, and when he brakes 'er up the passengers think that the first waltz at the Charity ball is just starting."

"But while he may be throwing on the brakes all right he's kind of off his pins when it comes to hearing the two bells go ahead. You see, a new man can't do everything at once. Takes about a week to get the shiver off, and during that time a regular gripman runs with the new man, keeping a sharp lookout. Then the new man, after his week, goes to the superintendent and has to pass an examination. They ask him all about the signals, and where other cars cross, and where the 'dead men' are—'dead men' a block you strike if you don't let go the cable where you have to, and if you ever strike a 'dead man' your job's gone, no ifs and ands about it."

It—and all about the street and so on. Well, if the new man passes the examination, he puts up $10, and they give him a certificate, and he can go and put that up for a uniform and an overcoat, and there you are—he's a gripman, ready for 20 degrees below zero and 100 degrees above zero and his little old $2 a day.

"The company's breaking in six new gripmen on the Fourteenth street line right now. Two of the old men died and a couple quit. Each line always keeps about a dozen extra gripmen on hand ready for an emergency, so they're breaking in these new ones. One of the new boys had an accident at Ninth and the avenue the other afternoon. Ran into an Anaesthetist bottle car. By ginger, I thought he was going to knock the thing clear to the Good Hope hill, but he didn't. Scared? Well, the passengers on the bottle wasn't half as scared as he was. He could hardly get off the grip to pick up the pieces of the fender. He thought he was as good as fired, but the company never said nothing. Guess they thought they were lucky to get off with as little damage. And besides an accident right at the start makes a gripman extra careful for the rest of the time."—Washington Post.

IMMIGRANT PROBLEM.

Three Bills Under Debate In the House.

W. A. STONE SOUNDS A WARNING.

The Prospect of Returning Prosperity and High Wages Will Increase Immigration to Startling Proportions—Corliss Wants the Canadians Barred.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The house has entered upon a debate of the immigration bills, reported from the immigration committee. Congressman W. A. Stone (Pa.) and Congressman Tracewell (Ind.) argued for a restrictive measure; Congressman Corliss (Mich.) for his bill designed to put an end to Canadian competition with American labor and Congressman Morse (Mass.) and Congressman Bartholdt (Mo.) for the education test bill.

Mr. Bartholdt argued that there was no question so much talked of and so little understood as the problem of immigration. There was, he thought, too much passion and prejudice in the demand from certain quarters in favor of the exclusion of foreigners. Good immigration, he urged, was desirable. His bill was a moderate measure for the exclusion of illiterates. An educational test, he pointed out, would not materially affect immigration from Great Britain, Germany and other countries of Northern Europe.

Mr. W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, the author of the Stone bill, explained its provisions and advocated its passage. The country, he argued, had long suffered from unreasonable immigration. The immigration for the last ten years had succeeded the natural increase.

Mr. Bartholdt challenged this statement, contending the natural increase was 1,000,000 a year, while immigration had averaged only about 250,000 a year.

Representative Stone said that during the hard times of the past three years immigration had fallen off, but with the prospect of returning prosperity and high wages it would increase to startling proportions. He did not oppose immigration as long as we could assimilate the foreigners, but they were coming too fast. In places in his own state there were localities where the English language was not spoken and where English newspapers were not read. Our laws were neither understood nor respected. His bill would transfer the inspection system from our ports to the ports from which the immigrants sailed. He had read two letters, one from Congressman Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and one from Charles Emory Smith, formerly minister to Russia, testifying to the feasibility of his bill.

Mr. Corliss (Rep., Mich.), submitted an argument in favor of his bill for the exclusion of foreigners who crossed our frontiers each year to compete with American labor. He read the testimony of inspection agents and others along the Canadian border as to the evil effects of the annual influx of Canadian birds of passage.

MONEY FOR CHARITIES.

The District of Columbia Appropriation Bill Passed the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The senate has passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill, carrying approximately $7,300,000. A debate on the question of appropriations for sectarian purposes cropped out on the paragraph making appropriations for charities in the district. On a vote the senate sustained the committee in providing specific appropriations for numerous private charitable institutions, some of them of a sectarian character.

A further provision was adopted for an investigation into the charity system of the district with a view to ascertaining what, if any, part of the public appropriations are used for church purposes.

Walking through the Diamond this morning, we found a group of citizens busily engaged in discussing the Diamond well question, and they were a unit in declaring that the water works trustees should furnish the motive power necessary to secure water from the well, in order that the public might be benefited. We suggest to said citizens the appointment of a committee, for the purpose of consulting the said trustees, and out of this consultation might come more than mere talk. If the well is a good feature, take steps to "turn on the water."

LICENSE.

An astute and intelligent leader of the liquor traffic, at present a resident of East Liverpool, has declared that he desires to retire from the business altogether, and embark in a business more congenial to him. He further states that it is but a question of a short time until license to sell intoxicants is done away with in the city of East Liverpool. Another prominent dealer, not far distant from the first named, has openly declared that the liquor business is the meanest and most undesirable business on earth, despite the fact that it is a money making venture. Is the handwriting on the wall? Turn on the light.

CHURCH AND STATE.

Keep them separate. Let no sectarian rule control in this blessed land. There must not be and shall not be any division of the public school fund. No ecclesiastical power shall control in Uncle Samuel's wide domain. No pope, prelate, potentate, bishop, synod, general conference, elder or minister shall dictate as to the way or manner in which the free citizens of this great commonwealth shall worship God. We shall worship the great Giver of all good gifts simply at the dictates of our own conscience. Our forefathers, wise in their day and generation, thus declared, and they handed down to us, their children, this gift from God as a precious heritage; and we, their sons and daughters, fully aware of the incalculable value of this most precious gift, will see to it that no ecclesiastical power shall rob us of that which is far more to be desired than gold, silver, or precious stones. The power to thus act and control this great nation comes to us first from God, and secondly through the instrumentality of intelligence and education, and the Little Red School House is the seed which produces, through God, this great harvest of freedom of thought and speech, and the right to serve God according to the dictates of our own enlightened consciences. Keep church and state separate. Take warning by the sad fate of nations which have been controlled by ecclesiastical power. No such power shall rule in this land, call it what you may, Methodist, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Catholic, Baptist, Episcopalian or what not. God is the supreme ruler of the universe, and we will worship Him—not any earthly power or human potentate or dictator. Turn on the light.

TRAINING GRIPMEN.

BREAKING IN COUNTRYMEN FOR CITY RAILWAY SERVICE.

"Where do the gripmen come from?" a strong armed, blue uniformed employee of the Washington and Georgetown railway was asked last night as he left his car at the end of the route for a cup of coffee and a sandwich in the all night restaurant.

"Why, from the country, most of them. These fellows who are raised on cigarettes and beer in the city don't seem to have the muscle necessary to throw on the brake and stop the train on a down grade. Then again a countryman is mighty careful about going through the streets. He's afraid that every man he sees step off the pavement is going to be run over, and he is absolutely certain that every team that comes out from a cross street is going to collide with him. It takes him about two years to get over this fear, and then, as he becomes a little careless, he has a few accidents that smash up fenders and take the paint off the coaches, and then he gets fired, and the road is ready to break in another countryman."

"How do they break them in?"

"Well, they are mighty careful with them. A new man on the grip is about the worst scared object in the world. Talk about your condemned man being scared when he's walking out in it with the man who's running a grip car for the first time. To be sure, an experienced gripman is on the car right beside him, ready to throw on the brakes and sound the 'lookout' bell. But between the grip, and the wheel brake, and the truck brake, and the 'go ahead' and 'stop' signals, and the 'look out' bells, and the people jumping on and off the grip car, your new gripman just gets seasick. They say they don't mind it, but they're talking through their bonnets, that's all. Then, another thing, the way they throw on the brake yanks their arms out of joint and makes 'em good and sore, I tell you."

"There's something funny about braking up a grip car. I came from the country to my job, but I wasn't always a plowboy. When I was a young fellow, I used to work in a country printing office, and used to have to run a Washington hand press—you're in the newspaper business? What! Never run one? Well, then, I can't tell you anything about it, except that if you don't know the trick you can't throw 'er over and get an impression no more than a rabbit. You may have a muscle like a blacksmith, but if you don't know the knack you can't pull the lever over, but if you are on to the trick, and don't weigh more'n 90 pounds, you can throw her around just like lightning and make 600 impressions an hour—that is, if you've got a good 'devil' to do your inking."

"Well, as I was saying, that's just like braking up a grip car. Some big fellows weighing 200 pounds, with muscles on them like Fitzsimmons, go out on one of these grips with two coaches behind 'em, and the way they brake 'er up makes all the passengers think they have gone to sea. Then a little fellow, who don't look heavy enough to handle a team of mules attached to a sulky plow, gets a job on the road, and he grabs that old grip like a drum major throwing a baton, and he'll get the knack of the thing right quick, and when he brakes 'er up the passengers think that the first waltz at the Charity ball is just starting."

"But while he may be throwing on the brakes all right he's kind of off his pins when it comes to hearing the two bells for go ahead. You see, a new man can't do everything at once. Takes about a week to get the shiver off, and during that time a regular gripman runs with the new man, keeping a sharp lookout. Then the new man, after his week, goes to the superintendent and has to pass an examination. They ask him all about the signals, and where other cars cross, and where the 'dead men' are—'dead men's' a block you strike if you don't let go the cable where you have to, and if you ever strike a 'dead man' your job's gone, no ifs and ands about it."

It—and all about the street and so on. Well, if the new man passes the examination, he puts up $10, and they give him a certificate, and he can go and put that up for a uniform, and an overcoat, and there you are—he's a gripman; ready for 20 degrees below zero and 100 degrees above zero and his little old $2 a day.

"The company's breaking in six new gripmen on the Fourteenth street line right now. Two of the old men died and a couple quit. Each line always keeps about a dozen extra gripmen on hand ready for an emergency, so they're breaking in these new ones. One of the new boys had an accident at Ninth and the avenue the other afternoon. Ran into an Anacostia boat car. By ginner, I thought he was going to knock the thing clear to the Good Hope hill, but he didn't. Scared? Well, the passengers on the boat car wasn't half as scared as he was. He could hardly get off the grip to pick up the pieces of the fender. He thought he was as good as fired, but the company never said nothing. Guess they thought they were lucky to get off with as little damage. And besides an accident right at the start makes a gripman extra careful for all the rest of the time."—Washington Post.

THE AMALGAMATED CONVENTION.

Iron and Steel Workers of the Country Gathered at Detroit.

DETROIT, May 20.—One hundred and seventy-five delegates were present when the annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers of America was called to order. President Garland of Pittsburgh presided.

Today the reports of officers are being read and tomorrow the wage committee will make its report, which will be the principal subject of discussion thereafter.

The delegates present directly represent 50,000 workers. But 500,000 employees of the iron trades are actually governed by the decisions of this body. Forty-five lodges have been enrolled during the past year, and the representation this year is the largest since the Homestead troubles.

A Cutthroat Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—J. E. Blanthor, the ex-Hungarian army officer who is suspected of cutting the throat of Mrs. Langfeldt, an aged woman, is still among the missing.

IMMIGRANT PROBLEM.

Three Bills Under Debate In the House.

W. A. STONE SOUNDS A WARNING.

The Prospect of Returning Prosperity and High Wages Will Increase Immigration to Startling Proportions—Corliss Wants the Canadians Barred.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The house has entered upon a debate of the immigration bills, reported from the immigration committee. Congressman W. A. Stone (Pa.) and Congressman Tracewell (Ind.) argued for a restrictive measure; Congressman Corliss (Mich.) for his bill designed to put an end to Canadian competition with American labor and Congressman Morse (Mass.) and Congressman Bartholdt (Mo.) for the education test bill.

Mr. Bartholdt argued that there was no question so much talked of and so little understood as the problem of immigration. There was, he thought, too much passion and prejudice in the demand from certain quarters in favor of the exclusion of foreigners. Good immigration, he urged, was desirable. His bill was a moderate measure for the exclusion of illiterates. An educational test, he pointed out, would not materially affect immigration from Great Britain, Germany and other countries of Northern Europe.

Mr. W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, the author of the Stone bill, explained its provisions and advocated its passage. The country, he argued, had long suffered from unreasonable immigration. The immigration for the last ten years had succeeded the natural increase.

Mr. Bartholdt challenged this statement, contending the natural increase was 1,000,000 a year, while immigration had averaged only about 250,000 a year.

Representative Stone said that during the hard times of the past three years immigration had fallen off, but with the prospect of returning prosperity and high wages it would increase to starting proportions. He did not oppose immigration as long as we could assimilate the foreigners, but they were coming too fast. In places in his own state there were localities where the English language was not spoken and where English newspapers were not read. Our laws were neither understood nor respected. His bill would transfer the inspection system from our ports to the ports from which the immigrants sailed. He had read two letters, one from Congressman Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, and one from Charles Emory Smith, formerly minister to Russia, testifying to the feasibility of his bill.

Mr. Corliss (Rep., Mich.), submitted an argument in favor of his bill for the exclusion of foreigners who crossed our frontiers each year to compete with American labor. He read the testimony of inspection agents and others along the Canadian border as to the evil effects of the annual influx of Canadian birds of passage.

MONEY FOR CHARITIES.

The District of Columbia Appropriation Bill Passed the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The senate has passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill, carrying approximately $7,300,000. A debate on the question of appropriations for sectarian purposes cropped out on the paragraph making appropriations for charities in the district. On a vote the senate sustained the committee in providing specific appropriations for numerous private charitable institutions, some of them of a sectarian character.

A further provision was adopted for an investigation into the charity system of the district with a view to ascertaining what, if any, part of the public appropriations are used for church purposes.

TROOPS TO BE SENT.

General Brooke Ordered to Quell Indian Disturbance in Montana.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Upon the representations of Indian Agent Stouch at Tongue River reservation, Mont., transmitted through and endorsed by the interior department, the war department has sent orders to General Brooke, commanding the department of Dakota, to send troops from Fort Custer to the agency to preserve order and stop killing of cattle by the Indians.

Probably two troops of the Tenth cavalry will be sent, but General Brooke is allowed to use his discretion on that point.

ROYALTY AT MOSCOW.

The Czar Said to Intend to Release Siberian Prisoners.

Moscow, May 20.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught, representing Queen Victoria at the coronation ceremonies, and the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse, Prince and Princess Louis of Battenberg, the hereditary Grand Duke of Baden, the crown prince of Denmark, and Prince Sudamuru of Japan, have arrived, also Admiral Selfridge of the United States navy and party.

A Berlin special says: The Berliner Tageblatt claims that the czar's manifesto will give amnesties, partial or complete, to Russian prisoners in Siberia. The peasantry in certain poor districts will be excused from arrears of crown dues. Even the Jews will not be forgotten and ill-starred Hebrew agricultural colonies at Ekaterinavsk will also be excused from arrears.

A London special says: The Rome correspondent of The Chronicle hears that the vatican has received information that the czar will pardon all Catholic priests who have been imprisoned or sent to Siberia for breach of the public worship laws, and that he also promises to grant gradually a large measure of religious liberty to all his subjects, including the Catholics.

BOIES FOR PRESIDENT.

Iowa Democrats Will Trot Him Forth For the Race.

HOLDING A CONVENTION TODAY.

The Silver Men Have the Upper Hand. The Gold Men Surrendered Peacefully. South Carolina and New Hampshire Democrats Meeting Today.

DEBUIQUE, Ia., May 20.—The fight between the gold and silver factions, which has been expected at today's Democratic state convention, seems to have been practically settled in advance. The gold standard delegates held a conference, and practically gave up the contest, though many favored a bolt.

EX-GOVERNOR BOIES.

him as a presidential candidate. He was urged to accept the permanent chairmanship, but declined. Figures given out as showing the relative strength of the factions in the convention are: Silver, 663; gold standard, 257.

There are but three contested delegations, Woodbury, Black Hawk and Lincoln counties. It is probable a compromise may be reached so all will be seated, dividing the vote.

TILLMAN HAS THE DELEGATES.

The South Carolina Democratic Convention in Columbia Today.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 20.—The state Democratic convention is in session today. Of the 320 delegates there are not more than 15 who favor the single gold standard, so the convention is sure to adopt the strongest kind of declaration in favor of free silver.

MAY DECLARE FOR SILVER.

But South Dakota Democrats Will Elect Gold Men as Delegates.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 20.—Reports indicate that the state Democratic convention, which is meeting today in Aberdeen will declare for free silver. The delegations of 15 counties are instructed for silver, 13 counties are uninstructed, but said to favor the white metal, and 2 are instructed for gold. The leaders will make a strong effort to prevent instructions of any kind or any declaration whatever, but it is doubtful if this plan will win.

The Free Silver Men Won.

OTTAWA, Ills., May 20.—Five hundred men stood in the town caucus of the Ottawa Democracy and for 20 minutes, sought to howl one another down. They were the adherents of Attorney General Moloney, representing the All-gold free silver wing of the Democracy, and the gold standard administration Democrats, friends of Controller Eckels. The silver men won. The gold men then left. A silver delegation was named to the county convention.

New Hampshire Democratic Convention.

CONCORD, N. H., May 20.—The Democratic state convention, to elect delegates at-large to the Chicago convention, assembled in this city today. The platform will declare for a gold standard, but it is expected that no candidates will be endorsed. The delegates at-large will probably be John W. Sanborn of Wakefield, Charles A. Sinclair of Portsmouth, Alva H. W. Salloway of Franklin, and Irving W. Drew of Lancaster.

The Weather.

Probably fair; light to fresh northerly winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The Catholic Knights and Ladies of America are in session at Memphis. Mortiz Front, aged 19, has been asleep at Both Hospital, New York for 24 days.

At Parkersville, Ind., Wallen Wagner cut his wife's throat and killed himself. Their 6-year-old child witnessed the deed.

Lightning struck the Capitol at Washington, causing a panic in the house. Rain leaked through the roof into the senate.

Sixteen thousand acres of ground on Cape Cod and Cape Ann were burned over by forest fires. Longfellow's home at Nahant was destroyed.

After a legal battle extending over 20 years, the Green of New York won possession of Chicago property worth $5,000,000 by a decision of the supreme court of Illinois.

PECULIAR RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

One Tramp Killed and Six Hurt Near Toledo.

TOLEDO, May 20.—One man has been killed and six injured by a singular accident on a Lake Shore fast freight. The train was going westward, at the edge of the city, when the air hose broke near the middle of the train, setting the brakes on the front half of the train. The rear portion came forward with such terrific force that one empty stock car was doubled together as if it had been a paper.

In the car were seven tramps stealing a ride. One, a little negro, escaped unhurt.

Frank Harris, Washington, Ga., was killed, his head being crushed. He was an employee of Sells & Forpaugh's circus and had left the show Monday.

THE NISWONGER KILLING.

Birdie McDonald Now Says Miller Committed the Murder.

DAYTON, O., May 20.—The Brookville tragedy Friday night last, resulting in the death of Samuel Niswonger, is growing more sensational. Immediately after her arrest, Birdie McDonald acknowledged that she had fired the bullet which pierced Niswonger's heart, and her story was for a time unquestioned.

INSTRUCTED FOR FREE SILVER.

Johnson Named For Congress by the Seventh Ohio District Democrats.

LONDON, O., May 20.—The Democratic convention of the Seventh Ohio district offered the congressional nomination to John W. Bookwalter, who declined it. It is understood that Bookwalter is a candidate for delegate-at-large in the interest of free silver.

James Johnson, Jr., of Springfield was nominated for congress. A. L. Claypool of Springfield and George F. Long of Troy were selected delegates to the Chicago convention. The alternates are J. B. Marshall, Washington C. H., and M. S. Murray, London. George Quessop of Circleville was nominated for elector. The congressional nominee and the delegates were instructed by resolution for free silver.

ODD FELLOWS AT LIMA.

The Ohio Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., in Session Here.

LIMA, O., May 20.—Grand lodge, I. O. O. F., Ohio, is in session here. Grand Master Dryfus recommended that lodges be limited to certain securities in loaning lodge funds. The reports show 63,000 members. The Rebekahs have 23,000 members. The subordinate lodges have over $2,000,000 in cash and securities.

Two hundred thousand dollars was paid for relief last year. In the last 20 years the average disability among members has reached the startling figure of five days per member per annum. Legislation to rectify this is recommended.

Ruined by the Convict Label.

COLUMBUS, May 20.—W. E. Joseph of this city, who is the chief clerk in the headquarters office here for the Patton Manufacturing company in the state prison at New Albany, Ind., and of the plant of Muncie, Ind., has been appointed receiver of the company in both states. His bond is $50,000, assets not known, but by prudence, it is said, they pay out. Discrimination against prison made goods, labeled by compulsion of the law, is said to be at the bottom of the assignment.

Cincinnati Music Festival.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—Last night Cincinnati proudly celebrated the opening of Springer hall and of the twelfth biennial May music festival. Springer hall is the name given the remodeled music hall, of which the late Reuben Springer was the founder. The choral Springer was Judas Macabaeus by Handel, bringing out the Thomas orchestra, chorus and organ, and four soloists, Mme. Nordica, Miss Marie Brenna, Ben Davies and Watkin Mills.

Urbana in the Hole.

URBANA, O., May 20.—The vote on the sale of the Urbana gas plant to the Interstate Gas company was defeated by a vote of 332 to 201, being less than a vote of the vote of the city. The one-third cost $250,000, and has been a losing investment. The proposition was to accept the offer of the Interstate company of $50,000. The city is behind $30,000 in interest.

A Road Sold to Brice.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—The Cincinnati Tunnel railway has been sold under foreclosure to Ira W. Belkows for $50,000. Belkows is representing Brice's new line to Chicago, via the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw and the Baltimore and Ohio. The completion of this tunnel will give the new line an excellent entrance to this city.

Charged With Embezzlement.

PORTSMOUTH, O., May 20.—W. E. Carr, a contractor, has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement. He is charged by his late partner, Charles Ball, with misappropriating $600, designed to pay their workmen. Carr disappeared several months ago on a pay day, and returned a few days ago.

Sympathetic Strike Hangs Fire.

BUFFALO, May 20.—The carpenters' lockout continues. The attempt to bring on a sympathetic strike of other trades hangs fire.

McCABE AND CRANSTON

These the New M. E. Bishops Elected at Cleveland.

DR. HOMER EATON IS RE-ELECTED.

He Gets Another Term as One of the Book Concern Agents at New York—A Scheme to Reduce the Church Extension Society Staff.

CLEVELAND, May 20.—The deadlock in the Methodist Episcopal general conference over the election of two bishops has been broken by the election of Dr. Charles C. McCabe of New York and Dr. Earl Cranston of Cincinnati. It was apparent when the delegates assembled that they were tired of the balloting and were determined to bring matters to an issue. The ball was set rolling by Rev. C. L. Stafford of Iowa, who moved that the election of bishops be indefinitely postponed. This precipitated a lively discussion and the motion was defeated. Then Dr. A. B. Leonard of Cincinnati moved that in future ballots the name of no candidate be announced who received less than ten votes. That motion carried and it smashed the deadlock. From the first the conference had been voting for two candidates on each ballot; that is, each delegate had two votes on each ballot. On every ballot from 1 to 200 votes were scattered among a score or more of candidates who had no chance of election. As soon as it was decided that candidates must receive more than ten votes to be counted, the delegates saw that the time to do something had arrived. A combination was quickly formed. On the fourteenth ballot Dr. McCabe's vote jumped to 258 from 190, what he had received on the ballot taken last night, and Dr. Cranston's from 245 to 261. That indicated clearly who the leaders were, and on the fifteenth ballot Dr. McCabe's vote rose to 344, or eight more than were needed to elect, while Dr. Cranston polled 328, or eight less than were needed. The next ball lot gave the victory to Dr. Cranston, and the west and east had both elected their candidates.

Bishop Walden, speaking of the result, said it was an Ohio day. Both of the bishops elected are natives of the Buckeye state, and 6 of the 16 bishops now on the board were born in Ohio. They are Stephen M. Morrill, John M. Walden, Isaac W. Joyce, Charles C. McCabe, Earl Cranston and James M. Thornburn. Bishop Foster, who was retired, is also an Ohio man.

Nominations for agents for the Western Book concern at Cincinnati were called for. In both cases two were to be elected. Before the vote was taken the result of the first ballot for New York agent was received. Dr. Homer Eaton was overwhelmingly re-elected, and after taking the first vote on the Cincinnati concern and the second on New York the balloting stopped. Both votes will be announced later.

Some of the delegates are working to have the staff of the church extension society decreased. This cropped out at a meeting of the committee on church extension. The committee recommended that a work on state and national law, as it applies to the holdings of churches, be included in the course of reading of theological students. It was voted that where a church asks aid in building and accepts it, the building must conform with plans approved by the church extension board.

There was a hot discussion before the committee on missions on the proposition that persons may specify the purposes for which special gifts to the church shall be used. Bishop Thornburn is exceedingly anxious that this be done. A few days ago he said that if better support was not given the mission work in India, one out of every six missionaries there would be compelled to return home. He said that while that might not be the result, a continuance of present conditions might prevent his returning to India. The change proposed met with the opposition of Dr. McCabe and Dr. Leonard. The matter was held over.

WOMAN DELEGATE QUESTION.

Now the M. E. Conference Is Wrestling With It at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The woman question took up the principal part of the session of the Methodist Protestant conference. The committee on certificates reported favoring the seating of all delegates who are enrolled as members, which of course, included the women, the committee holding that they were constitutionally elected.

Rev. J. T. Murry of Maryland moved the word "constitutional" be omitted and J. C. Caton of Alexandria, Va., spoke against the amendment, saying it would kill the meat of the report. Rev. J. A. Thorpe of Toronto, O., moved the previous question, which was carried without any particular opposition.

Rev. Murray thereupon made a caustic speech in which he referred to "gag" rule and ended by offering two amendments to the proposition. One was to amend the constitution so as to set forth plainly that ministerial delegates to the general conference be either male or female and that lay delegates be either men or women.

The second thought to amend the constitution making women eligible as elders of the church.

Rev. Thomas Lewis of Maryland and Rev. Eugene St. John of Kansas made speeches on the question. A motion to refer the matter to the judiciary committee was finally carried.

Baptist Mission Society Meeting.

Crouse, the president of the society, presided. Among the subjects discussed was "Home Missions vs State and City Missions," and "Local Charities and General Benevolence."

The packet Hudson arrived here last night, and fearing that it might prove dangerous to proceed towards Pittsburg, in view of the low ebb of water, the passengers were discharged and continued on to their destination by rail. ## A DIVORCE ASKED FOR

By a Printer, Who Charges Disregard of Duty.

THE ARBUCKLE CASE APPEALED

To Common Pleas Because a Judgment Was Rendered in a Local Court—A New Trial Asked for in the Leatherow Damage Case—Court News.

Lisbon, May 20.—James Thompson, a printer known throughout the county, of Salineville, began divorce proceedings against Nellie Thompson yesterday, alleging willful absence and absolute disregard of her duties as a wife for over three years. The couple were married at Smith's Ferry 17 years ago and have no children.

The case of John J. Purinton against Lillie M. Arbuckle, in which a judgment for $49.93 and costs was recently rendered in a justice court in East Liverpool, was brought on appeal by the defendant in common pleas court this morning. The amount was alleged to be due on an account.

Joseph T., Emma, W. J. and Anna M. Burt and Mary A. and John Bloom entered suit today against Jasper N. Taylor to recover $130, which is due on the purchase of a lot in New Waterford. The plaintiffs owned the lot and sold it to the defendants in December, 1895. The amount was to be paid in full by March of this year, but this the defendant failed to do.

John Pow took a judgment by concession in this court this morning against Julius Voetter for $68.77, which is claimed to be the amount due on a note given two years ago at Salem. Orders were given to the sheriff to sell the personal property belonging to Voetter to obtain the amount.

The application made four weeks ago by John M. Stratton to vacate an alley in Boone's addition to Salem was heard by the court and the alley ordered to be vacated. It was shown that this would conduce to the general interests of the property owners and city.

A motion has been filed for a new hearing in the case of Martin Leatherow against the city of East Liverpool, in which a verdict of $400 was given yesterday.

It was found by the court that William B. Mersten & Co. held a judgment against the defendant, and that Annie J. McDevitt has property belonging to him. A. R. Wells and the Silver Banking company are also indebted to him. These parties were ordered to appear on May 25, to which time the case was continued. In the meantime McDevitt was enjoined from disposing of any of his property.

Thomas R. Laughlin was this morning appointed as administrator of the estate of the late William Jackson, of East Liverpool, with $200 bond. J. H. Brooks, M. J. McGarry and R. G. Thompson were appointed appraisers.

Marriage licenses were issued to David B. Green and Rosa D. Pinkerton, of East Liverpool, and J. I. Caldwell and Mary Lillie Ruhl.

He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three 50 cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

LANDLORD AND TENANT

An Interesting Squabble That Was Aired in Court.

WANTED TO FIGHT THE TENANT

And the Affair Terminated in an Arrest and the Landlord Gets Fined $13 for His Disorderly Conduct—Host of Witnesses Present, and Testify.

The mayor sat in judgment over a case of more than usual interest last night. James A. Gray came before his honor and made complaint against one John Seibert, whom he accused of threatening to "do him up."

The principals in the affair both occupy the same house, situated near the ice plant, one family living in the upper and the other in the lower part of the building. It appears that Seibert collects the rent for the use of the house from Gray, and yesterday the latter person was notified that the amount of rent had been raised, and although this month's rent had been paid in advance, Seibert demanded, without any previous notification, the additional increase.

Gray demurred at paying over the amount originally contracted for, whereupon Seibert became very abusive and threatened to annihilate him. Gray ordered his dery landlord out of the house and the latter persistently refused to go. At request of his wife, Seibert was finally prevailed upon to leave, but upon reaching the porch he positively declined to budge an inch and was about to make an onslaught on Gray, when the latter, to defend himself, grabbed up a hatchet and kept his would-be assailant at bay. At this moment a brother of one of the parties arrived and succeeded in reducing matters to a pacific state.

Gray, smarting under the indignities that had been heaped upon him, determined to obtain recourse through the medium of the law, hence the prosecution.

Seibert was summoned and appeared for trial, bringing with him a host of witnesses to show that his disposition was one as quiet and meek-like as a lamb. Gray had six witnesses to substantiate his side of the affair, and after listening to all the testimony, Mayor Gilbert adjudged Seibert guilty of disorderly and unbecoming conduct and fined him $13. The amount was paid, and an interesting scene terminated.

THE ARBUCKLE CASE APPEALED

To Common Pleas Because a Judgment Was Rendered in a Local Court—A New Trial Asked for in the Leatherow Damage Case—Court News.

LISBON, May 20.—James Thompson, a printer known throughout the county, of Salineville, began divorce proceedings against Nellie Thompson yesterday, alleging willful absence and absolute disregard of her duties as a wife for over three years. The couple were married at Smith's Ferry 17 years ago and have no children.

The case of John J. Purinton against Lillie M. Arbuckle, in which a judgment for $49.93 and costs was recently rendered in a justice court in East Liverpool, was brought on appeal by the defendant in common pleas court this morning. The amount was alleged to be due on an account.

Joseph T. Emma, W. J. and Anna M. Burt and Mary A. and John Bloom entered suit today against Jasper N. Taylor to recover $130, which is due on the purchase of a lot in New Waterford. The plaintiffs owned the lot and sold it to the defendants in December, 1895. The amount was to be paid in full by March of this year, but this the defendant failed to do.

John Pow took a judgment by concession in this court this morning against Julius Voetter for $688.77, which is claimed to be the amount due on a note given two years ago at Salem. Orders were given to the sheriff to sell the personal property belonging to Voetter to obtain the amount.

The application made four weeks ago by John M. Stratton to vacate an alley in Boone's addition to Salem was heard by the court and the alley ordered to be vacated. It was shown that this would conduce to the general interests of the property owners and city.

A motion has been filed for a new hearing in the case of Martin Leatherow against the city of East Liverpool, in which a verdict of $400 was given yesterday.

James J. McDevitt, of Wellsville, appeared before the probate court this morning for examination under oath concerning his property, on motion made by William S. Henderson. It was found by the court that William B. Mersten & Co. held a judgment against the defendant, and that Annie J. McDevitt has property belonging to him. A. R. Wells and the Silver Banking company are also indebted to him. These parties were ordered to appear on May 25, to which time the case was continued. In the meantime McDevitt was enjoined from disposing of any of his property.

Thomas R. Laughlin was this morning appointed as administrator of the estate of the late William Jackson, of East Liverpool, with $200 bond. J. H. Brookes, M. J. McGarry and R. G. Thompson were appointed appraisers.

Marriage licenses were issued to David B. Green and Rosa D. Pinkerton, of East Liverpool, and J. I. Caldwell and Mary Lillie Ruhl.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1,235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both." He has used three 50 cent bottles and believes it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

LANDLORD AND TENANT

An Interesting Squabble That Was Aired in Court.

WANTED TO FIGHT THE TENANT

And the Affair Terminated in an Arrest and the Landlord Gets Fined $13 for His Disorderly Conduct—Host of Witnesses Present, and Testify.

The mayor sat in judgment over a case of more than usual interest last night. James A. Gray came before his honor and made complaint against one John Seibert, whom he accused of threatening to "do him up."

The principals in the affair both occupy the same house, situated near the ice plant, one family living in the upper and the other in the lower part of the building. It appears that Seibert collects the rent for the use of the house from Gray, and yesterday the latter person was notified that the amount of rent had been raised, and although this month's rent had been paid in advance, Seibert demanded, without any previous notification, the additional increase.

Gray demurred at paying over the amount originally contracted for, whereupon Seibert became very abusive and threatened to annihilate him. Gray ordered his fiery landlord out of the house and the latter persistently refused to go. At request of his wife, Seibert was finally prevailed upon to leave, but upon reaching the porch he positively declined to budge an inch and was about to make an onslaught on Gray, when the latter, to defend himself, grabbed up a hatchet and kept his would-be assailant at bay. At this moment a brother of one of the parties arrived and succeeded in reducing matters to a pacific state.

Gray, smarting under the indignities that had been heaped upon him, determined to obtain recourse through the medium of the law, hence the prosecution.

Seibert was summoned and appeared for trial, bringing with him a host of witnesses to show that his disposition was one as quiet and meek-like as a lamb. Gray had six witnesses to substantiate his side of the affair, and after listening to all the testimony, Mayor Gilbert adjudged Seibert guilty of disorderly and unbecoming conduct and fined him $13. The amount was paid, and an interesting scene terminated.
